This MPN list is primarily based on the provider's Tax ID number indicated above. Provider may be contracted under a different Tax ID number.

This list represents some of the most common Workers' Comp payers and networks. Combined participation with some of the above listed networks may result in automatic inclusion with hundreds of different payers.

For reference purposes only. Participation can vary as Payors may use certain geographic, client and product exclusions. MPN client lists are subject to change without notice. As a result, this list may contain errors or omissions. Please contact the payor directly to verify eligibility and benefits.
